

the objectives

RETE intends to cultivate and develop the cooperation between ports and port cities on both continents in the field of urban-port waterfront requalification, and more generally, the relationship between port and city.

The Association's mission is to build an international network of port cities and ports with a particular, but not exclusive, focus on Southern and Mediterranean Europe and Latin America, to develop and improve their reciprocal relationships and mutual collaboration, with the intent of achieving a balanced and qualified development of urban and port environments.

The goals of the Association are to sponsor, develop and implement programs, projects, activities and training opportunities, study, research and diffusion to promote:

- > the cooperation between port administrations and local, regional and national administrations, as well as other interested public and private groups;
- > the best integration of ports in their territorial, economic, social, cultural and environmental context;
- > prosperity and improvement of the quality of life in port cities.

the members

Eligible for membership in the Association, at the various levels defined in the Statute, are:

- > Administrations of port cities and the public government of the territory
- > Port authorities or other organisms for the management of ports
- > Scientific and research groups
- > Public or private businesses,

operating in port cities

- > Individuals interested in the theme of the relationship between port and city.

the organization

The organizational activity of RETE is regulated by the standards of its Statute.

The Association is governed by a Council, in which all Members participate, and is directed by the Governing Board, headed by the President.

The Coordinator is responsible for the management of the Association.

the instruments

RETE pursues its goals by:

- > organizing seminars, conferences and training sessions, with the direct involvement of RETE's partners
- > publication of the biannual magazine Portus;
